As part of our series of annual policy notifications, and in compliance with federal law, we encourage you to review the following policies and statements that are crucial to the mission of the university. Please review the information and bookmark this website for future reference: https://hr.uiowa.edu/policies/annual-notifications

This is the first in a two-part series of reminders about the university's community policies.

Title IX (Federal law):

"No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance." -Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972.

Title IX (http://diversity.uiowa.edu/policies/title-ix) prohibits sex discrimination in all programs and activities of the university. It applies to academic matters, admissions, athletics, career services, counseling and medical services, employment, financial aid, housing and facilities, and all other programs, events, and activities available at the university. The University of Iowa takes all reports of sex discrimination seriously, which includes reports of sexual harassment, sexual assault, and sexual violence.

The University of Iowa has designated Monique DiCarlo as its Title IX Coordinator. For more information, please contact Ms. DiCarlo in the Office of the Sexual Misconduct Response Coordinator (335-6200 or http://osmrc.uiowa.edu/) or contact staff in the Office of Equal Opportunity and Diversity (335-0705, diversity@uiowa.edu). UI POLICY ON PHYSICAL AND SEXUAL ABUSE OF CHILDREN:

In addition to our underage students, children are often on our campuses as participants in a wide variety of campus programs and activities or just as visitors. Consistent with Iowa Code §262.9(37), all university employees who in the course of their employment receive information related to physical or sexual abuse of children must immediately report such information to the University of Iowa Department of Public Safety. In the case of incidents not on the Iowa City campus, local police authorities should also be called in order to avoid any delay in response.

University employees who are statutory mandatory reporters of all forms of child abuse (not just physical or sexual abuse) under state law must also fulfill their statutory obligation to report to the Department of Human Services as provided by Iowa Code §232.67-70.

University employees, students and visitors who are not statutory mandatory reporters may and are strongly encouraged to report all forms of child abuse directly to the Department of Human Services as provided under Iowa Code §232.67-70.
