Distinguished Educator Award

DR. CHRIS CHEATUM

Professor of Chemistry Christopher Cheatum joined the college administration as the new Associate Dean for the Natural, Mathematical, and Social Sciences in January, 2022. Chris has been with the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences since 2003. Among Chris's many accomplishments, he was the recipient of the 2014-2015 Collegiate Teaching Award and was recognized as a 2011 CLAS Dean's Scholar. Chris has a strong record of funded research and has supported numerous graduate students in their pursuit of a Ph.D. He has also served in a number of leadership roles, including serving as a member of CLAS Executive Committee and the Faculty Assembly Chair. Dr. Cheatum has been a strong advocate for the CIAE. He consistently participates in the faculty panel for the 4 day Iowa Edge experience to welcome incoming Iowa students to the University and be a friendly face among faculty. Additionally, in the fall of 2021 Dr. Cheatum offered to host chemistry study sessions in our space. Since then he has hosted a weekly chemistry study session for CIAE students. These sessions have provided students with an opportunity to ask any questions they may have as well as get to know Dr. Cheatum. Without a doubt we know that Dr. Cheatum has had a positive impact on our students and we value his presence in our community.

DEAN'S ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

Annually, the deans for each of the eleven colleges at the University of Iowa are asked to select outstanding underrepresented students for this award who have exemplified, promoted, or contributed to diversity at the University of Iowa. Students receive a certificate designating them as a Dean's Achievement Award recipient.

Emma served in numerous student leadership roles across campus, including Team Lead for the Underrepresented Minorities Student Advocacy Group for the Consortium of Universities for Global Health. She continues her commitment to diversity in her role as Assistant Scientist in the Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center in the University of Miami Office of Community Outreach and Engagement.

IOWA

Carly Armour is earning her Ph.D. in Higher Education and Student Affairs. Carly brings incredible passion to her scholarship and to her doctoral experience. She started her Ph.D. while working full-time in student disability services as an accommodations coordinator, then made the jump to being a full-time student and has held GA positions in the Grad College DEI office & the University Assessment office. She brings compassion and joy to our community and as a Deaf, queer woman, she inspires hope. Carly is applying for DEI leadership roles in and outside of higher education

STUDENT LEADERSHIP AWARDS

This award recognizes individuals who have made meaningful and significant contributions to the University of Iowa or surrounding communities through their vision and action; their sense of responsibility, devotion, and diligence; and through their inspiration, good judgment, and will. Students receive a certificate designating them as a Student Leadership Award recipient.

Dominique Badajoz is from Newport Beach, CA and is graduating with a BA in Studio Art. She has played a critical part of the University of Iowa's mission to serve students in an equitable manner, particularly Indigenous and Native peoples of the Midwest. From participating in campus-wide conversations on how to support and uplift Indigenous folks with the Native American Student Association, to leading new groups of students on their transition to college as an Associate Peer Leader with Iowa Edge. Dominique has taken many opportunities to participate and be involved in making change at UI. She shows a tenacity and resilience that is not often seen in students. Throughout her college career she has also served as the President of the Alpha Chapter of Sigma Lambda Gamma National Sorority, Inc., President and Powwow Coordinator for the Native American Student Association, founding Secretary of the Society for Advancement of Chicanos/Hispanics and Native Americans in Science, and has worked to serve Latinx and Indigenous Students on and off campus at the Latino Native American Cultural Center. Dominique plans to move home and begin applying to graduate schools in the fall - as well as continue to work on her art as a freelance artist.

Veronica Cariveau is from Riverside, IL, and is graduating with a BBA in Marketing. She participated in the Tippie BizEdge mentoring program as a mentee and then became a mentor the following year. She has remained involved with the program since and has contributed to the environment and experience of many more students who are underrepresented in the college. She regularly shows up and makes space for others, so students feel both welcome and included in the college and the Pappajohn Business Building. She has fully committed herself to her business community, academics, and her career preparation all with an eye on how to make spaces more inclusive.

Iris Elena Espana is from Chicago, IL, and is graduating with a BBA in Management Leadership. From the beginning of her time in Tippie, she has shown initiative to become involved in extracurricular activities, build interpersonal relationships and to make Tippie a more welcoming environment for students of color and first-generation college students as Tippie Senate's Head of Diversity Committee. Iris has served as a DEI ambassador, BizEdge mentee, Lambda Theta Nu president, Tippie Senate Diversity and is an Ethics Business Case Competition Winner. Upon graduation, Iris will begin her career as a consultant with Ernst & Young.

Stephanie Garcia is from Storm Lake, IA, and is graduating with a BBA in Accounting. Stephanie came to Iowa as a high school student through the Tippie Gateway Program, and she has been engaged in her community at UI since. She participated in research that explored the student experience as an underrepresented business student, both as a woman and as a Latina. Stephanie has been involved with BizEdge as a mentee for two years. Stephanie is bilingual, and always willing to use language to make spaces more inclusive at UI. Stephanie plans to work as an Accountant at Pricewaterhouse Coopers upon graduation.

Marco Guadiana is from Waukegan, IL and is graduating with a BBA in Finance and a minor in Spanish. Marco is a true advocate in many settings and is committed to serving underrepresented populations on campus. He is a strong role model for first-generation business students and a true ambassador for Tippie across campus sharing his experiences and giving other students a welcoming introduction to Tippie and the community. Marco has been involved in the Iowa Edge BizEdge Mentoring Program, CIAE Student Programming Assistant, Iowa First Nations Resident Assistant, Acacia Fraternity and Hawk Trade. Marco's future plans are to be a bilingual and bicultural financial advisor in his community.

IOWA

Neah Howlett is from Davenport, IA, and is graduating with a BBA in Business Analytics & Information Systems and Marketing (Analytics Track). Neah has been a DEI coordinator for Tippie's Black in Business program and has created a welcoming and inclusive space for Black and minority students to thrive and grow professionally. Neah's involvement at UI includes Business Student Ambassador for Tippie Senate, VP of Professional Development Box of Balloons, President of Pi Beta Phi, and VP of Risk Management Alpha Kappa Psi Professional Business Fraternity. Upon graduation, Neah will pursue a career as a Data Analyst at IBM in New York City.

IOWA

Amiya Jones is from Indianapolis, IN, and is graduating with a Master of Social Work degree. Amiya has made her mark as an Iowa athlete by serving on the DEI committee within ISAAC and engaging in Big 10 DEI initiatives on her team. Furthermore, she has worked to build rapport on campus and in the Iowa City community by mentoring and participating in multiple campus and community initiatives. Amiya has applied to the Peace Corps and plans to use that as a vessel to build skills and networks in order to complete her dream of starting her own nonprofit 24-hour youth center focused on equity, career opportunities, and mentorship.

IOWA

Kaevon Merriweather is from Van Buren Township, Michigan, and is graduating with a BS in Sport and Recreation Management (Business Studies). Kaevon has been involved in the Multicultural Focus Group, has attended the Big Life Series Selma to Montgomery trip for a Transformational Educational Experience, and was a member of the ISAAC committee as a football representative. Kaevon plans to work for the NFL and own his own training facility.

Nikole Molina is from Muscatine, IA and is graduating with a BBA in Business Analytics and Information Systems. Nikole has been central to diversity programming in the Tippie College of Business in her multiple roles as a BizEdge mentee, mentor, BizEdge program coordinator, DEI ambassador and president of the Multicultural Business Student Association. Since her first year, she has done more than just participate in programs - she has been an innovator. She is bilingual, bicultural, and has pursued a Spanish minor and International Business certificate to further represent herself in the world of business. Nikole will move to Dallas, Texas in the fall to work for EY as a technology consultant.

Caymen Woods is from Naperville, IL, and is graduating with a BBA in Business Analytics and Accounting. Caymen has gone from being a general member, to holding multiple leadership roles in various organizations and has made a positive and lasting impact on his peers, staff, and faculty in the College of Business and University of Iowa. Caymen has been involved in the BizEdge Mentoring Program, Tippie Gateway Mentoring Program, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, the Black in Business Series Coordinator and the Hubbard Scholars National Pan-Hellenic Council President.
