DEI FORWARD TASK FORCE REPORT

Value statement:

It is the responsibility of the University of Iowa to provide our students, faculty, and staff with the skills required to lead in a culturally and globally diverse society and workforce.

Task force charge:

Evaluate all University of Iowa DEI programs, policies, and staff as specified by the Iowa Board of Regents DEI Study directives and provide recommendations to university leadership that: 1) ensure alignment of these efforts with federal compliance, accreditation criteria, grants, and faculty, staff, and student success; and 2) strengthen, reimagine, or eliminate activities based on whether they align with #1 as well as our strategic plan.

Guiding principles:

1. The institution shall remain in compliance with state and federal laws, including Title IX, Americans with Disabilities Act, and Title XII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.
2. The institution shall remain fully accredited with the Higher Learning Commission and the individual accreditation bodies for each of our colleges, units, and departments.
3. The institution must continue meeting the criteria required to competitively attract the more than $350 million it receives in federal funding for research and need-based student grants.
4. The institution will continue to provide opportunities for civic engagement in a diverse, multicultural society and globally connected world, as appropriate within its mission and for the constituencies it serves. (reference: Higher Learning Commission)
5. The institution will continue to offer programs engaging students in collecting, analyzing, and communicating information; in mastering modes of intellectual inquiry or creative work; and in developing skills adaptable to changing environments. (reference: Higher Learning Commission)

Priorities:

1. Expand diversity work at the University of Iowa to include a broader framework, concentrating on the teaching and practicing of the skills needed for our students, faculty, and staff to lead in a global society and workforce.
2. Identify the skills necessary for our faculty, staff, and students to become culturally competent leaders.
3. Reaffirm the institution as a place that hosts a diversity of viewpoints and that respects and practices freedom of expression and diversity of intellectual and philosophical perspectives.
4. Establish a "hub and spoke" model to encourage continued efficiency and elimination of duplication in diversity work across the university.
5. Outline clear, measurable goals and outcomes to ensure a welcoming and respectful environment for everyone.
6. Develop these recommendations so they align with the Iowa Board of Regents and the University of Iowa strategic plans, both of which emphasize ensuring a welcoming and respectful environment.

Note: Directives five, seven, and ten will be completed by the Iowa Board of Regents. This document is the official recommendations of the University of Iowa DEI Forward Task Force for consideration by President Barbara Wilson and Provost Kevin Kregel to meet the Iowa Board of Regents DEI Study directives.
Focusing on cultural and global competency:

Iowans come from different communities and have diverse life experiences, making every citizen of the state and the country unique. Learning how to listen, understand, and communicate with others who do not share a similar background or worldview are skill sets that must be acquired. It is the responsibility of the University of Iowa to provide our students, through our faculty and staff, the skills required to lead in a globally diverse society and workforce.

UI’s cultural competency is based on mastering three core elements:

1. Creation of a culture where all people can be productive and contribute.
2. Cultivation of communities that are open and welcoming to all.
3. Working with people to find common ground.

What does the University of Iowa strive to accomplish?

- Provide an education to students, supporting their aspirations in their careers and lives.
- Develop and hone skills to manage differences.
- Support students and their success by creating a community on which they can rely.
- Meet the needs of Iowans through research, teaching, and public service.

Definition of cultural and global competency:

- Cultural and global competency is developed over time through opportunities to engage with individuals and ideas different from one’s personal life experience. Learning how to listen critically and carefully, understand other viewpoints and perspectives, work in diverse teams, and interact respectfully with a variety of individuals is what employers are seeking from employees.

Essential skills:

- Perspective taking: Engaging with and valuing diverse backgrounds and viewpoints.
- Critical thinking: Communicating effectively, listening critically to distinguish facts from opinions, and engaging in complex discussions with respect and civility.
- Awareness: Understanding the role of history in shaping society.
- Reflection: Recognizing personal beliefs and values, taking responsibility for actions, engaging in challenging discussions with an open mind, and seeking, understanding, and respecting different perspectives.
- Critical listening: Actively analyzing and assessing information, allowing for informed decision-making.

Note: Directives five, seven, and ten will be completed by the Iowa Board of Regents. This document is the official recommendations of the University of Iowa DEI Forward Task Force for consideration by President Barbara Wilson and Provost Kevin Kregel to meet the Iowa Board of Regents DEI Study directives.
Subcommittee directives

Iowa Board for Regents directive #1: (Nearly completed)
Restructure the central, university-wide DEI offices to eliminate any DEI functions that are not necessary for compliance or accreditation. Support services in these offices must be broadly available to all students and/or employees, subject to applicable state or federal eligibility requirements.

Recommended changes to meet this directive:
1. Expand the focus of diversity work to represent a broader framework, emphasizing the skill sets needed for our students, faculty, and staff to lead in a global society and workforce.
2. Change the structure of the division to align each of the positions with one of two general categories or functions, compliance, or accreditation:
   a. State/federal compliance requirements (e.g., Title IX, Title VII, ADA); or
   b. Higher Learning Commission (HLC) accreditation criteria.
3. Change the name of the Division of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion to the Division of Access, Opportunity, and Diversity (DAOD). The new name reflects the focus of the division on federal requirements as well as the provision of services to all eligible campus constituents.
4. The role of the new division will be to ensure access to educational resources for all students, faculty, and staff; to support grant and research opportunities for all; and to redesign and coordinate campus-wide programming focused on cultural and global competency.
5. The job duties/title of the associate vice president will be reviewed to align with these changes.
6. Change the name and structure of the division units to reflect their services to the university.
   a. Change the Office of Institutional Equity to the Office of Civil Rights Compliance (OCRC).
      i. Require a senior director position to oversee all of its functions to limit the university’s liability and improve cross-campus communication.
      ii. Require the senior director position to hold a Juris Doctorate.
      iii. Remove the individual subunits of Title IX and Gender Equity, Equity Investigations and ADA Compliance, and Equity Compliance.
   b. Merge the Center for Inclusive Academic Excellence and the Inclusive Education and Strategic Initiatives unit to become the Office of Access and Support (OAS).
      i. Develop a “hub and spoke” model to incorporate staff within UI colleges, units, and departments to serve as academic coordinators and training assistants.
      ii. No later than Dec. 31, 2024, change the Building University of Iowa Leadership for Diversity program to align with federal compliance and HLC accreditation criteria.
         1. Develop cohort models within UI colleges, units, and departments for specific training programs.
         2. Include education on freedom of expression, cultural and global competency, and respecting diversity of viewpoints.
      iii. Develop student, faculty, and staff programs and training focused on leadership skill building while practicing institutional neutrality. Develop a plan to market, promote, and connect with all university stakeholders to highlight such services.
7. To ensure efficiency and reflect this realignment, the division will not rehire five positions vacated in the past year. The funding from these salaries ($368,656) will be redeployed to initiatives focused on student success.

Note: Directives five, seven, and ten will be completed by the Iowa Board of Regents. This document is the official recommendations of the University of Iowa DEI Forward Task Force for consideration by President Barbara Wilson and Provost Kevin Kregel to meet the Iowa Board of Regents DEI Study directives.
Implementation:
The review of positions to assure their alignment with compliance or accreditation criteria will begin immediately upon the approval of these recommendations. The task force’s preliminary review indicates that all job duties for all current staff in the division readily map to either compliance or accreditation support functions. All positions will be reviewed, and the newly proposed organization structure will be finalized by Oct. 1, 2024.

Message points:
- The University of Iowa is committed to ensuring students are prepared to succeed in a diverse, complex society.
- The central division will be renamed; it will shift to a leaner operation and its focus will change to educating the skill sets needed for cultural and global understanding. The division will also provide services and resources to maintain access to higher education.
- The newly named Division of Access, Opportunity, and Diversity ensures that the University of Iowa complies with state and federal civil rights laws. It also administers federally funded programs like TRIO and supports university efforts to meet diversity-related accreditation criteria necessary to accomplish its mission.
- These changes also support the division’s efforts to become more effective and efficient for our colleges, units, and departments, and to provide resources that enhance leadership skills and cultural/global competency for our campus in a manner that encourages freedom of expression and a broad range of viewpoints.

Campus partners shaping diversity at the University of Iowa:

See Appendix A for federal compliance and accreditation criteria alignment recommendations.

DEI FORWARD TASK FORCE REPORT

Subcommittee directives

Iowa Board of Regents directive #2: (In progress)

Review all college, department, or unit-level DEI positions to determine whether DEI-specific job responsibilities are necessary for compliance, accreditation, or student and employee support services. Any position responsibilities that are not necessary for these purposes shall be adjusted or eliminated. Position and/or working titles shall be reviewed to ensure they appropriately reflect position responsibilities.

Recommended changes to meet this directive:

1. The Task Force completed the initial review of DEI positions to ensure their alignment with compliance, accreditation, or student and employee support services (see Appendix C) on April 1, 2024.
2. The Task Force identified 77 DEI positions of any Full Time Equivalent percentage (FTE%) related to DEI work (see Appendix B). o Positions were identified by the following keywords in the position or working title or job description: diversity, equity, inclusion, or belonging.
3. The preliminary review indicates that all positions readily map to accreditation criteria or apply to student or employee support functions. However, many job descriptions, roles, and responsibilities need to be adjusted.
4. Senior HR leaders should review and update position descriptions or position/working titles with employees and supervisors to clearly align the position’s duties, responsibilities, or title with accreditation criteria or student and employee support services.

Implementation:

- A tool kit for Senior Human Resource leaders will be developed and positions will be reviewed with employees and supervisors by Dec. 31, 2024.
- Positions will be evaluated on the following criteria:
  o Does the position align with compliance or accreditation criteria?
  o Does the position include the broadest framework, focused on the teaching or practicing of the cultural and global competency skills needed for our students, faculty, and staff to lead in a diverse society and workforce?
  o Does the position foster a diversity of viewpoints, respecting freedom of expression and diversity of intellectual perspectives?
  o How does the position fit into the institution’s "hub and spoke" model for efficiency, and is the position duplicated across the university?
  o What are the clear, measurable goals and outcomes of the position to ensure a welcoming and respectful environment for everyone?

Message points:

- Nearly 100% of the reviewed job descriptions required modifications to ensure alignment with job tasks specific to the accompanying accrediting body.
- University human resource leaders will work with individual employees and supervisors to adjust position titles and/or job descriptions by the end of the 2024 year.

Note: Directives five, seven, and ten will be completed by the Iowa Board of Regents. This document is the official recommendations of the University of Iowa DEI Forward Task Force for consideration by President Barbara Wilson and Provost Kevin Kregel to meet the Iowa Board of Regents DEI Study directives.
Iowa Board of Regents directive #3: (Completed)

Review the services provided by offices currently supporting diversity or multicultural affairs in other divisions of the university to ensure they are available to all students, subject to applicable state or federal eligibility requirements. Program promotional and informational materials and websites shall be updated to clarify that the mission of these offices is to support success broadly.

Recommended changes to meet this directive:

1. Add the following updated language to the UI Policy Manual and the Policies and Regulations Affecting Students, in particular the student organization policies:

   All advertising and promotional materials and information related to publicly promoted events, activities, and programs provided and hosted by a registered student organization, must include a statement that the event, activity, or program is open to all.

   Examples of such events, activities, or programs may include, but are not limited to: hosted lecture series, campus-wide activities, leadership development trainings, invited guest speakers, film screenings, craft or creative activities, well-being focused events, etc. Exceptions include:
   - Routine organizational and/or business meetings restricted to group members or group leadership.
   - Instances where a specific exception is provided through the Office of Institutional Equity or another university office or official.

2. All materials and information also need to include the accessibility statement found in the UI Policy Manual and listed below.

   Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact (insert: the sponsoring department or contact person) in advance at (insert: telephone number).

Implementation:
- Once approved, a notification will be sent to the entire campus. It also will be included in policy notifications sent at the beginning of each semester.

Message points:
- Add template language to the brand site.
Subcommittee directives

Iowa Board of Regents directive #4: (Completed)

Take reasonable steps to ensure the following:

1. No employee, student, applicant, or campus visitor is required to submit a DEI statement or be evaluated based on participation in DEI initiatives unless the position is required for DEI-related compliance or accreditation.
2. No employee, student, applicant, or campus visitor is compelled to disclose their pronouns.

Recommended changes to meet this directive:

1. Update Policy Manual III-9.8 Diversity in Employment Guidelines. Replace the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion qualification with a required qualification related to fostering a welcoming and respectful environment, in alignment with the new universal competency. This policy applies to leadership positions at P&S pay level 6 and above, and faculty administrative positions. Update Recruitment Manual content accordingly.
2. Provide a set of best practices to foster a welcoming and respectful environment.
3. Recommend that course syllabuses reinforce that the use of pronouns is not a requirement in the classroom.

Implementation:

- Eliminated the DEI universal competency for staff and replaced it with the “Welcoming and Respectful Environment” universal competency.
  - This recommendation has been approved by the president and the provost and was implemented into a new universal competency in the staff annual performance review system for 2024 performance reviews. The change was implemented and went into effect as of Jan. 8, 2024. Performance reviews for this year were due March 30, 2024.
- Local job descriptions will be updated with the new universal competency by Oct. 1, 2024.
- Policy Manual III-9.8 and Recruitment Manual content has been updated effective March 1, 2024.
- Best practices to foster a welcoming and respectful environment will be published by Aug. 1, 2024.
- The recommendation about course syllabuses and the use of pronouns was discussed with shared governance, and then approved by the president and the provost. As of spring 2024, syllabuses will include this proviso.

Message points:

- The change in universal competency, and the Policy Manual update, align with the UI strategic plan.
- The university shall ensure that no one will be compelled to disclose pronouns.
- As of spring 2024, a statement prohibiting any requirement of the use of pronouns has been added to all syllabuses.

Note: Directives five, seven, and ten will be completed by the Iowa Board of Regents. This document is the official recommendations of the University of Iowa DEI Forward Task Force for consideration by President Barbara Wilson and Provost Kevin Kregel to meet the Iowa Board of Regents DEI Study directives.
Iowa Board of Regents directive #6: (Nearly completed)
Initiate a review of DEI-related general education categories and update category names to accurately reflect the array of options students may select from to satisfy these requirements and ensure a breadth of offerings.

Recommended changes to meet this directive:
1. The Task Force reviewed the 66 general education courses related to DEI and discussed the category with the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences General Education Curriculum Committee. It is recommended that the general education category, “Diversity and Inclusion” be updated to “Understanding Cultural Perspectives” to better reflect the world readiness skills that students are taught in these courses as well as the breadth of course offerings available.
2. The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences General Education Curriculum Committee reviewed the recommended name change and campus leadership approved.

Implementation:
- Full implementation of the change on websites and documents is ongoing and will be completed during the 2025 academic year, including websites.

Message points:
- A review of the Diversity and Inclusion general education category was initiated, including the breadth of course offerings, student learning outcomes, world readiness skills students gain, and student feedback on learning outcomes.
- Based on the review, it was determined that UI students have a wide range of course offerings from which to choose based on their interests, areas of study, and/or career goals.
- It was also determined through a review of student feedback that learning outcomes are achieved.
- To meet this directive, it is recommended that the general education category titled “Diversity and Inclusion” be updated to “Understanding Cultural Perspectives” to better reflect the world-readiness skills students acquire and the breadth of courses available.
- The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences General Education Curriculum Committee reviewed and approved this change.
Subcommittee directives

Iowa Board of Regents directive #8: (Completed)
Explore potential recruitment strategies for advancing the diversity of intellectual and philosophical perspectives in faculty and staff applicant pools.

Recommended changes to meet this directive:

1. The Task Force reviewed search processes and advertising as well as search committee training for both faculty and staff positions.

2. For faculty searches, it is recommended that the Path to Distinction training program be bolstered to incorporate information and strategies that address diversity of viewpoints, where relevant.
   - The Path to Distinction: Best Practices Guidance for Faculty Search Committees provides research-based strategies that support the university’s commitment to enhance excellence through faculty contributing to a welcoming culture.
   - The companion document, Path to Distinction Toolkit, contains worksheets and guidance documents for faculty search committees to utilize during the various aspects of the faculty recruitment process.

3. For staff searches, a review of job board systems found that the university currently markets and promotes staff job opportunities to a broad array of applicants.
   - Examples include, but are not limited to: Abilities in Jobs, Veteran Job Center, US Diversity Job Search, and Seniors at Work.
   - It is recommended that to reach the widest variety of staff applicants, job listings should also be posted on several national job search websites (e.g., Indeed, FlexJobs, Zippia, Trovit, Oodle, Talent.com, ZipRecruiter, etc.).

Implementation:

- For faculty searches, resources related to the Path to Distinction program have already been updated to ensure intellectual and philosophical thought are considered.
- The Office of Human Resources, Office of Talent Acquisition and the Division of Access, Opportunity and Diversity will equip faculty search committee members with the knowledge and skills to support diverse perspectives in the recruitment process.
- For staff searches, the Office of Talent Acquisition is exploring the capabilities of Broadbean. Broadbean is talent acquisition software that incorporates data and insights to optimize the recruitment strategy posting on various job boards for staff positions catering to various intellectual and philosophical viewpoints.

Message points:

- Diversity should be defined in the broadest sense possible, including intellectual and philosophical thought.
- Recruiting individuals who demonstrate a commitment to intellectual and philosophical thought should continue to be a priority within the university.

Note: Directives five, seven, and ten will be completed by the Iowa Board of Regents. This document is the official recommendations of the University of Iowa DEI Forward Task Force for consideration by President Barbara Wilson and Provost Kevin Kregel to meet the Iowa Board of Regents DEI Study directives.
Subcommittee directives

Iowa Board of Regents directive #9: (Nearly completed)
Explore a proposal, including cost, to establish a widespread initiative that includes opportunities for education and research on free speech and civic education.

Recommended changes to meet this directive:
1. Consider a new initiative that would encourage the learning of civic dialogue skills and align it with activities currently underway within the Division of Student Life and the Obermann Working Group.
2. Pilot this initiative with support from the president’s office to ensure campus resources and sustainability.
3. The Civic Dialogue Initiative should entail the following:
   - Coordinate civic dialogue efforts across campus, including a resource hub for activities and best practices.
   - Develop a “Community of Practice” to support pedagogical innovation in the classroom and beyond (in partnership with the Center for Teaching).
   - Develop a sequenced program of skill building and application events for students, including workshops focused on first-year students to establish basic skills and strong habits as well as a program for advanced students to gain professional facilitation experience and lead peer-to-peer engagement.

Implementation:
- During spring 2024, the Facilitating Difficult Dialogues Obermann Working Group will finalize a curriculum based on two levels of focus:
  - Level Two: Leadership Skills for Civic Dialogue. Intermediate skills for convening and leading facilitated civic dialogue.
- Launch a pilot Civic Dialogue Initiative in the fall of 2024:
  - During the fall 2024 semester, the university will pilot several program components, including a field experiment in the residence halls and a first-year seminar, to assess the impact of dialogue skill building on student learning outcomes. Opportunities for fine-tuning and scaling the initiative will be identified.
  - We have designed the pilot initiative around five outcomes that enhance civic dialogue: listening, openness to new ideas, curiosity, finding common ground, and resolution of conflict.

Message points:
- To be determined by Office of Strategic Communication, the Division of Student Life, and the Obermann Working Group.

Note: Directives five, seven, and ten will be completed by the Iowa Board of Regents. This document is the official recommendations of the University of Iowa DEI Forward Task Force for consideration by President Barbara Wilson and Provost Kevin Kregel to meet the Iowa Board of Regents DEI Study directives.

- Carver College of Medicine
- College of Dentistry
- College of Education
- College of Engineering
- College of Law
- College of Pharmacy

In addition to colleges, many individual academic programs are accredited by professional organizations to ensure that graduates are eligible for licensure or certification. These include but are not limited to:

- School Counseling

Note: Directives five, seven, and ten will be completed by the Iowa Board of Regents. This document is the official recommendations of the University of Iowa DEI Forward Task Force for consideration by President Barbara Wilson and Provost Kevin Kregel to meet the Iowa Board of Regents DEI Study directives.
Each of the professional accrediting bodies has language specific to diversity, equity, and inclusion. For example, the explicit criteria for the American Psychological Association, which accredits clinical psychology, counseling psychology, and school psychology, states:

Effectiveness in health service psychology requires that trainees develop the ability to conduct all professional activities with sensitivity to human diversity, including the ability to deliver high-quality services to an increasingly diverse population. Therefore, trainees must demonstrate knowledge, awareness, sensitivity, and skills when working with diverse individuals and communities who embody a variety of cultural and personal background and characteristics. The Commission on Accreditation defines cultural and individual differences and diversity as including, but not limited to, age, disability, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, language, national origin, race, religion, culture, sexual orientation, and socioeconomic status. The CoA recognizes that development of competence in working with individuals of every variation of cultural or individual difference is not reasonable or feasible.

There are many more specific criteria that are too numerous to include here for the purpose of this report.

Note: Directives five, seven, and ten will be completed by the Iowa Board of Regents. This document is the official recommendations of the University of Iowa DEI Forward Task Force for consideration by President Barbara Wilson and Provost Kevin Kregel to meet the Iowa Board of Regents DEI Study directives.

Appendix E:
Online feedback (over 100 responses)

Question #1: What aspects would you like this task force to focus on regarding the Iowa Board of Regents (BoR)-approved DEI Study directives? These efforts aim to enhance our campus experience, ensure compliance with accreditation standards, and promote student success.

- Support for DEI on campus: The campus community values DEI (Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion) initiatives and is concerned about their potential impact. There’s a focus on supporting marginalized groups and enhancing the campus environment, with suggestions to improve communication about the positive impacts of DEI.

- Political influence and restriction on academic freedom: Concerns are raised about external political pressures impacting academic freedom and the stigma associated with the term “DEI.” Some suggest rebranding DEI efforts to focus on inclusive dialogue.

- Representation and broad input: The need for diverse representation and broad input in decision-making is emphasized, including student perspectives beyond official channels. There’s frustration that the Iowa Board of Regents may be disregarding diverse inputs.

- Importance of DEI in education and campus experience: DEI is seen as crucial for enriching education and campus life, fostering creativity, innovation, and global perspectives among students. However, some feel that a social-justice model has led to divisiveness.

- Importance of inclusive university culture: An inclusive culture where all individuals feel valued is advocated for its role in attracting diverse talent and fostering innovation.

- Impact on university reputation and success: Concerns are expressed about the negative effects BoR directives could have on university reputation, student recruitment, and compliance with accreditation standards.

- Measuring impact: There’s a call for mechanisms to measure the effectiveness of DEI initiatives as well as assessing the impact of BoR directives on campus climate retention rates among students, faculty, staff.

- Opposition to DEI: A minority opposes DEI efforts, suggesting their reduction or elimination while recognizing varied views within the university community regarding these initiatives.

Question #2: What essential skills are necessary for students, faculty, and staff to navigate the complexities of a global economy and society, and how can we effectively impart and cultivate these skills?

- Perspective taking: Engaging with and valuing diverse backgrounds and viewpoints.

- Critical thinking: Communicating effectively, listening critically to distinguish facts from opinions, and engaging in complex discussions with respect and civility.

- Leadership: Demonstrating courageous leadership, teamwork, and problem-solving. Fostering a productive organizational culture by uniting people from different backgrounds towards a common goal, making ethical decisions, and developing resilience to adapt to change.

- Awareness: Understanding the role of history in shaping society.

- Reflection: Recognizing personal beliefs and values, taking responsibility for actions, engaging in challenging discussions with an open mind, and seeking, understanding, and respecting different perspectives.

The task force appreciates the thoughtful input that members of the UI community have provided. The task force has reviewed all comments that have been submitted. To concisely summarize the ideas we received, we employed Chat GPT 3.5 and Copilot to analyze the feedback and generate categories of skills/mindsets that were included in the feedback. We then reviewed, edited, and significantly revised the AI-generated list to ensure we had adequately summarized the skills that were suggested by the UI community.

The budget required to comply with federal requirements is $1,836,836, which represents 38% of the total budget.

Grants
Ten employees, or 25% of the total number of FTEs, are supported by external grant funding from groups such as Trio Support Services and Upward Bound.

The resources provided by these external organizations is $1,044,649, which represents nearly 22% of the total budget.

Student Success
Supporting the academic success of its student body is an essential part of the mission of the University of Iowa. Within the division, nine employees (22.5%) serve as academic coaches or manage programs that support the academic success of its students.

Funding allocated to these efforts is $938,604, or 19% of the budget.

Appendix I:
Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion at the University of Iowa

Accreditation, federal grants, and compliance
The University of Iowa and its individual colleges and administrative units have requirements that must be met in order to effectively serve the people of Iowa.

There are more than two dozen federal requirements, accreditation standards, and research stipulations that mandate programming related to diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI). Even the University of Iowa’s membership in the NCAA is conditioned on paying attention to diversity, equity, and inclusion activities. Failure to comply with these standards is not an option.

Accreditation
The U.S. Department of Education, as authorized by the Higher Education Act, recognizes national accrediting agencies that provide quality assurances for consumers and the federal government. This mark of quality is required by the federal government in order for students at the university to receive federal aid.

An element of accreditation is the comparison of the institution/department against peer institutions/departments. This comparison is used, instead of specific metrics, to recognize that growth and variation can exist within the broad parameters set by the governing body.

Research
Federal funding agencies and private foundations have implicit and explicit stipulations regarding diversity, equity, and inclusion. Requirements vary and are supported via central university resources and collegiate activities. Any changes to DEI efforts on the campus of the University of Iowa will have a substantial negative impact on the research mission of the university.

Federal requirements
The U.S. Department of Education’s 2020 Title IX Regulation recognized that sexual harassment, including sexual assault, is unlawful sex discrimination. Compliance with this regulation requires resources related to support the complaint processes and investigations. Staffing resources are centralized at the University of Iowa to support the needs of campus effectively and efficiently.

In addition to Title IX, the university must also comply with requirements set forth by the federal government related to employment discrimination, disability access, and veteran preference.

NCAA requirements
As a member of the NCAA and the Big Ten Conference, the University of Iowa must complete a review of DEI activities every four years and report those findings to the NCAA. The NCAA provides a framework to assist schools and guide the review process.

Note: Directives five, seven, and ten will be completed by the Iowa Board of Regents. This document is the official recommendations of the University of Iowa DEI Forward Task Force for consideration by President Barbara Wilson and Provost Kevin Kregel to meet the Iowa Board of Regents DEI Study directives.
The University of Iowa is well below the average of its national peer set with respect to the overall number of employees focused on diversity, equity, and inclusion efforts. Current staffing levels allow the university to maintain accreditation while maximizing efficiency through a centralized hub-and-spoke model of engagement.

The chart shows that the university has 35 full-time employees in the Division of DEI, whereas the average for the UI’s peers is 58. The remaining 21 full-time employees at the University of Iowa are distributed among colleges and departments. All UI colleges and departments are at or below the average of their peers.

The UI’s peer set is composed of the following institutions:

- University of Arizona
- University of Illinois
- University of Michigan
- Michigan State University
- University of Minnesota
- University of North Carolina
- Ohio State University
- University of Utah
- University of Wisconsin

Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) regulates health care entities including hospitals. CMS regulations impose Conditions of Participation that hospitals must meet to participate in Medicare and Medicaid. CMS is establishing health equity priorities that are in the process of becoming Conditions of Participation:

Framework for Health Equity five priorities:
1. Expand the collection, reporting, and analysis of standardized data.
2. Assess causes of disparities within CMS programs, and address inequities in policies and operations to close gaps.
3. Build capacity of health care organizations and the workforce to reduce health and health care disparities.
4. Advance language access, health literacy, and the provision of culturally tailored services.
5. Increase all forms of accessibility of health care services and coverage.

EP 1 – 6 (Joint Commission)
Effective January 1, 2023, new and revised requirements to reduce health care disparities will apply to organizations in the Joint Commission’s ambulatory health care, behavioral health care and human services, critical access hospital, and hospital accreditation programs.

Organizations will still be required to do the following:
1. Identify an individual to lead activities to improve health care equity.
2. Assess the patient’s health-related social needs.
3. Analyze quality and safety data to identify disparities.
4. Develop an action plan to improve health care equity.
5. Take action when the organization does not meet the goals in its action plan.
6. Inform key stakeholders about progress to improve health care equity.

Student learning outcomes: The role of library and information services in a diverse global society, including the role of serving the needs of underserved groups.

Accreditation and Standards 2B (Planning and Accreditation Board)
Student Diversity: Diversity is an inclusive concept which encompasses, but is not limited to, race, ethnicity, class, gender, age, sex, sexual orientation, ability, educational attainment, first-generation status, spiritual beliefs, creed, culture, tribal affiliation, nationality, immigration status, political beliefs, and veteran status.

The Program shall develop a holistic strategy that addresses the following elements:

1. Recruitment: Consistent with applicable law and institutional policy, the Program shall establish strategic goals that demonstrate an active commitment to attracting a diverse student population. Programs must report how they are arriving at their program’s diversity goals and determining what student populations, if any, are underrepresented in their Program. The Program shall collect and analyze data on student demographics to inform and enhance its efforts to identify effective and appropriate methodologies for achieving 2022 PAB Accreditation Standards 6 diversity in its student body. Furthermore, the Program shall establish assessment mechanisms for each of its strategic goals that are focused on achieving diversity. Because diversity is not a static concept, and because all planning programs should seek to improve the diversity of the graduates entering the profession, the Program shall provide evidence of activities and programs intended to assist in achieving student diversity along with specific diversity-related strategic goals that have been met.

2. Climate of inclusiveness: The Program shall report on actions being taken to promote a culture of inclusiveness within the Program, including but not limited to support of student groups, promotion of community events, curricular elements, and faculty involvement.

3. Student support: The Program shall report on actions being taken to support and retain students from underrepresented groups, including but not limited to mentorship and internship programs, financial assistance and fellowship programs, professional development programs and career services, and initiatives to support engagement in the profession.

NIH Cancer Center

In addition, if the population of the catchment area of the Cancer Center has limited ethnic diversity, provide a discussion of the institution’s efforts to broaden the ethnic diversity of its clinical trial accrual.

- The UI has a Cancer Center Support Grant totaling $50M in FY 22.

NIH sponsored clinical trials

People may experience the same disease differently. It's essential that clinical trials include people with a variety of lived experiences and living conditions, as well as characteristics like race and ethnicity, age, sex, and sexual orientation, so that all communities can benefit from scientific advances.

- The UI had $35M in clinical trials in FY 22.

Department of Energy

$13M awarded in FY 22

Department of Energy requires Promoting Inclusive and Equitable Research (PIER) plans.

National Science Foundation (NSF)

106 grants

Broader Impacts are required of all NSF proposals. Critical elements of BI activities include:

1. Full participation of women, persons with disabilities, and underrepresented minorities in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM).
2. Increased public scientific literacy and public engagement with science and technology improved well-being of individuals in society, development of a diverse, globally competitive STEM workforce.

NSF EPSCoR – Statewide

$20M award just announced.

- Researchers from the University of Iowa will play a key role in boosting Iowa’s position as a leader in bioscience and advanced manufacturing through a new project sponsored by the National Science Foundation. The $20 million, multi-institution project brings together expertise from all three of Iowa’s regent universities, Central College, and Dordt University. Iowa State University is serving as the lead institution for this award.

A key component of this project is described here:

4.6 Broadening Participation (2 pages maximum). Broadening participation in STEM is integral to building capacity within a jurisdiction and ensuring that available human and institutional resources play a meaningful role in the pursuit of the goals of the project. This includes diversity of all types—individual, institutional, and geographic. RII Track-1 project narratives should describe the current landscape of diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) within the jurisdiction, and provide plans for broadening the participation of not only groups traditionally underrepresented in STEM but also of other groups within the jurisdiction whose eventual participation in the STEM enterprise would benefit the jurisdiction. Proposals must describe the basis for the proposal’s strategic choices for broadening participation, including the institutional diversity of the participating organizations. Example activities include those that: support the STEM education and careers of women, groups traditionally underrepresented in STEM, persons with disabilities, and veterans; develop student employment and leadership options; identify innovative strategies for faculty recruitment and retention; and expand organizational participation. Providing opportunities to engage in STEM for students who are in the first generation of the family to attend college, or those from economically disadvantaged or rural populations may also be appropriate when such strategies are responsive to jurisdictional needs. Developing research capacity in participating institutions of all types and serving varied student populations is a required project component.

Note: Directives five, seven, and ten will be completed by the Iowa Board of Regents. This document is the official recommendations of the University of Iowa DEI Forward Task Force for consideration by President Barbara Wilson and Provost Kevin Kregel to meet the Iowa Board of Regents DEI Study directives.

Appendix J: Division communication themes

Phase I: Define the role of the new division.

- Change the focus of diversity work at the University of Iowa to a broader view, focused on the teaching and practicing of the skill sets needed for our students, faculty, and staff to lead a global society and workforce available to everyone.
- Redefine the institution as the place to host a diversity of viewpoints respecting and practicing freedom of expression and diversity of intellectual and philosophical perspectives to solve our society’s problems.
- Identify and define the skill sets necessary for our faculty, staff, and students to become culturally competent leaders.
- Establish a “hub and spoke” model to encourage continued efficiency and elimination of duplication in diversity work across the university.
- Outline clear, measurable goals and outcomes to ensure a welcoming and respectful environment for everyone.
- Align division services with collegiate accreditation needs.
- Establish and maintain pipeline and transitional opportunities.
- Explain the new units, their roles with the university, titles, and responsibilities.

Phase II: Educate on cultural and global competency as an institution.

UI’s cultural competency is based on mastering three core elements:
1. Creation of a culture where all people can be productive and contribute.
2. Cultivation of communities everyone wants to be a part of and is welcomed in.
3. Working with people to find common ground.

What does the University of Iowa strive to accomplish?
- Provide an education to students, supporting their aspirations in their career and life.
- Develop and hone skills to manage differences.
- Support students and their success by creating a community on which they can rely.

Definition of cultural and global competency:
- Cultural and global competency is developed over time through opportunities to engage with individuals and ideas different from your life experience. Learning how to critically listen and express a viewpoint is what employers are seeking from employees.

Essential skills:
- Perspective taking: Engaging with and valuing diverse backgrounds and viewpoints.
- Critical thinking: Communicating effectively, listening critically to distinguish facts from opinions, and engaging in complex discussions with respect and civility.
- Leadership: Demonstrating courageous leadership, teamwork, and problem-solving. Fostering a productive organizational culture by uniting people from different backgrounds towards a common goal, making ethical decisions, and developing resilience to adapt to change.
- Awareness: Understanding the role of history in shaping society.
- Reflection: Recognizing personal beliefs and values; taking responsibility for actions; engaging in challenging discussions with an open mind; and seeking, understanding, and respecting different perspectives.

Phase II: Help to teach free speech and how do we practice it at UI.

Note: Directives five, seven, and ten will be completed by the Iowa Board of Regents.
