NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH
November 2019

THURSDAY, 11/7
Iowa Stories Lecture for Indigenous Peoples’ Month
12:00pm
State Historical Society
402 Iowa Ave.
Iowa City, IA 52242
Dawson Davenport (Meskwaki) will read and discuss excerpts from a chapter in a book called We the Interwoven: An Anthology of Bicultural Iowa.

THURSDAY, 11/7
Two-Spirit documentary screening
5:00pm
UI CDE Space
2750 UCC
We will have a discussion following the film.
Food will be provided.

THURSDAY, 11/9
Meskwaki Veteran’s Powwow
5:00pm Dinner
6:30pm Grand Entry
Meskwaki High School
Volunteer your time at this event.
For more information, please call Jennie Wanatee: 641-481-5360

SATURDAY, 11/9
Iowa Native Nations Flag Display Ceremony
1:00- 4:00pm
State Capitol Building
1007 E Grand Ave
Des Moines, IA 50319

THURSDAY, 11/14
Rosalie Fish (Cowlitz Nation)
4:00pm
UI Boyd Law Building
Room 245
Rosalie is a first year runner from Iowa Community College who has garnered national attention for using running as a platform for raising awareness about Missing and Murdered Indigenous Womxn. Reception to follow at LNACC.

THURSDAY, 11/14
Decolonize Your Mind
5:30pm
UI Latino Native American Cultural Center
308 Melrose Ave,
Iowa City
Event will be a short talk about colonization, historical events, and then beadwork projects.
We will also have a discussion on mental illnesses in native communities.

THURSDAY, 11/21
ALL OF NOVEMBER 2019
FilmScene in Iowa City is presenting a collection of six indigenous short films from the Sundance Film Festival throughout the month in front of all new releases. You can catch them all of November at both locations of FilmScene.

The patterns featured on this flyer are from a Meskwaki Charm Bag. c. 1870.

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in this program, please email Cueponi Cihuatl Espinoza at: cueponi-cihuatl-espinoza@uiowa.edu