To create and actively teach a college transition seminar for recent high school graduates who will be attending college in the fall. The Bridge Seminar will meet four times per week on Monday-Thursday (one hour per meeting, or 240 instructional minutes per week).

CHARACTERISTICS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Instructional duties:

- Create an engaging and informative course curriculum and syllabus for the seminar. Instruction should include:
  - Specific strategies for success in the collegiate classroom
  - Academic and social expectations at the college level
  - Student services and student organizations at the college level
  - Sociopolitical, cultural and/or economic factors in one’s development as a college student
- Effectively teach the curriculum developed for the course.
- Plan and implement assigned special activities during the summer program.
- Update grades on University’s course management system (ICON) by Friday of each week.

Other duties:

- Alert Project Director and Educational Specialists to student issues as they arise.
- Attend Upward Bound orientation and training sessions during the spring and summer.
- Attend Upward Bound weekly staff meetings during the summer.
- Other duties as assigned.

SUPERVISION
The Bridge Seminar instructor receives functional supervision from the Upward Bound Educational Specialists. The Upward Bound Project Director maintains administrative supervision over all summer program staff.
